Objective

To acknowledge that from time-to-time staff members may be summoned to attend for jury duty or be subpoenaed as witnesses.

Policy

Those employees summoned to attend for jury duty or subpoenaed by the Crown as witnesses at Court Hearings be paid normal wages during such absences from work, on production of satisfactory proof of attendance.

Employees attending Court either voluntarily, or subpoenaed by parties other than the Crown, shall not be paid wages, except where such attendance is on behalf of Council, at Council's request or on account of employees position with the Council.
